Treasure of IELTS Academic Task 1 and Speaking

Traditionally, millions of students view IELTS Writing as the most difficult task out of all the four modules. IELTS statistics for 2012 proves that both male and female candidates score about 0.5 less for writing than for other modules. Why does it happen? First, many students are not used to letters, graph analyses or essays in English. They need to study the structure, cohesion markers and style parameters. Second, most people lack the knowledge of less common vocabulary and grammar structures. Third, even those who train hard do not understand examiners' criteria well enough. Even IELTS coaches, who train students specifically for this exam, seldom understand in detail each criterion. Personally, I studied and analysed IELTS band descriptors, but it was only after two seminars with IELTS Principal Examiner that I actually grasped their meaning. Those who want to feel deeper IELTS criteria can take advantage of an excellent course: This ebook that explains in detail various strategies and requirements.

HOW DO I MAKE MY WRITING MORE INTERESTING? Please don't! It's not an essay writing competition and there are no marks for interesting. So don't waste your energy on interesting because the examiners are not interested. Spend that energy on getting the structure right. You are taking the IELTS test for a reason and it is this reason that rules here, not you. Give the examiner what they need not what you think they want. IELTS tests your English, not if you are good, clever, witty, amusing or even honest.
