90 Day Planner

People today are hungry for God's sure guidance in their churches. But how do they find it? One of the strongest prophetic voices to the church today, Henry Blackaby, helps Christians grasp God's pattern for strengthening their churches, rather than relying on human ideas and methods that leave God on the periphery. They'll learn how to be sensitive individually and corporately to the effort of the Spirit, exploring the trustworthy principles by which the Lord longs to guide each congregation toward its own distinctive mission.

Along the Afghanistan border, a CIA agent meets secretly with a distraught Arab girl. She passes him a coded message before killing herself. But before the message can be deciphered, the world spins toward war: Within hours, the president of Pakistan is assassinated, and the country's nuclear warheads go missing. Al Qaeda streams into northern Pakistan. Israel puts her combat forces on hair-trigger alert. CIA paramilitary agent Peter Zembeic is given the impossible task of finding and destroying the missing warheads. Working with his best friend, a B-2 pilot, they develop a desperate plan to save the world from the threat of nuclear terror.

This soft cover 90 day business planner kicks off your planning for each quarter. Before you even get into the 'to-dos' there's space to map out your vision, income goals, declutter your thinking and think about what your customer needs and where they hang out. We know you're super busy and need a little help to manage ALL the plates you've got spinning. Weekly layout with handy time slots so you always know your next appointment or task so you can be where you need to be and be right on time. With all the things you've got to get done each day there's two handy prompts per week so you don't get caught in the whirr of noise and busy-ness and stay focused. If you get that one thing done, you're winning my friend. When you're super busy we also know that cleaning out your sock drawer becomes so much more appealing than the 'stuff' you're trying to avoid. We've got your back with that with a weekly layout so you know where you need to be and know what you need to be doing. Finally, we left out the month and dates so you can add these to fit in with when you start, because let's face it, it's easy to forget that when the going gets tough. SUM IT ALL UP Week view per page (for 90 days, well of course) Prompts each day to: focus, get stuff done and capture the good stuff Big vision focus Income planning and visualisation tasks (e.g. what will success look like for the next 90 days) Cute glossy cover that you'll want to show off (and be safe from messy coffee shop spillages) Soft cover because if it was hardback this baby wouldn't make it out the house Enough for 2 rounds of 90 days (that means a whole 6 months or 2 Quarters or 180 days_ We're passionate about making planners, journals, jotters and notebooks in lighter weight soft back notebooks so they're not too beautiful to get used and are easy to carry in your already heavy bag. "Written for undergraduate psychology students, and assuming little knowledge of evolutionary science, the third edition of this classic textbook provides an essential introduction to evolutionary psychology. Fully updated with the latest research and new learning features, it provides a thought-provoking overview of evolution and illuminates the evolutionary foundation of many of the broader topics taught in psychology departments. The text retains its balanced and critical evaluation of hypotheses and full coverage of the fundamental topics required for undergraduates. This new edition includes more material on the social and reproductive behaviour of non-human primates, morality, cognition, development and culture as well as new photos, illustrations, text boxes and thought questions to support student learning. Nearly 300 online multiple choice questions complete the student questioning package. This new material complements the classic features of this text, which include suggestions for further reading, chapter summaries, a glossary, and two-colour figures throughout"--

Evolutionary Psychology

Aphra Behn was a prolific and well established writer but facts about her remain scant and difficult to confirm. What can safely be said though is that Aphra Behn is now regarded as a key English playwright and a major figure in Restoration theatre. Aphra was born into the rising tensions to the English Civil War. Obviously a time of much division and difficulty as the King and Parliament, and their respective forces, came ever closer to conflict. There are claims she was a spy, that she travelled abroad, possibly as far as Surinam. By 1664 her marriage was over (though by death or separation is not known but presumably the former as it occurred in the year of their marriage) and she now used Mrs Behn as her professional name. Aphra now moved towards pursuing a more sustainable and substantial career and began work for the King's Company and the Duke's Company players as a scribe. Previously her only writing had been poetry but now she would become a playwright. Her first, "The Forc'd Marriage," was staged in 1670, followed by "The Amorous Prince" (1671). After her third play, "The Dutch Lover," Aphra had a three year lull in her writing career. Again it is speculated that she went travelling again, possibly once again as a spy. After this sojourn her writing moves towards comic works, which prove commercially more successful. Her most popular works included "The Rover" and "Love-Letters Between a Nobleman and His Sister" (1684-87). With her growing reputation

Aphra became friends with many of the most notable writers of the day. This is The Age of Dryden and his literary dominance. From the mid 1680's Aphra's health began to decline. This was exacerbated by her continual state of debt and descent into poverty. Aphra Behn died on April 16th 1689, and is buried in the East Cloister of Westminster Abbey. The inscription on her tombstone reads: "Here lies a Proof that Wit can never be Defence enough against Mortality." She was quoted as stating that she had led a "life dedicated to pleasure and poetry."
