Undetected, Dee Henderson

When asked what he does for a living, Commander Mark Bishop is deliberately low-key: "I'm in the Navy." But commanding the ballistic missile submarine USS Nevada, keeping its crew trained and focused during 90-day submerged patrols, and being prepared to launch weapons on valid presidential orders, carries a burden of command like few other jobs in the military. Mark Bishop is a man who

Undetected by Dee Henderson - Goodreads

In Dee Henderson's Undetected, Mark Bishop loves his job as the commander of the U.S.S. Nevada, a submarine on the front lines of America's defense. And he is good at his job. But when his tour of duty ends, he would like to have someone waiting for him at home.... Gina Gray is on the rebound again.

Undetected - Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System

Mark wants someone to come home to after sea patrols. The woman he has in mind is young, pretty, and very smart. She's a civilian, but she understands life in the Navy. And he has a strong sense that life with her would never be boring. But she may be too deep in her work to see the potential in a relationship with him. Gina Gray would love to be married. But a breakup she didn't see coming dgottreu , July 31, 2014 (view all comments by dgottreu) Undetected by Dee Henderson is another great book by this author. Mark Bishop is the Commander of a ballistic missile submarine but when someone asks him what he does for a living he simply replies, "I'm in the Navy.". This is an extreme understatement for his job carries responsibilities that are not seen in any other job in the military.
